GROTON

Good Attendance at Recent Teachers Meeting.

There was a good attendance at the teachers' meeting held at the Methodist church Friday. A large number of teachers being present from each of the four towns of the unit. The meeting was in charge of Supervisor John L. Gilman and the principal speakers were Mr. J. S. Cooley of Wrentham, Mass., Principal C. H. Morrill of the Randolph Normal school, and Harvey Burbank supervisor of the Danville unit. Both morning and afternoon sessions were of much interest to all present. The morning session was devoted to the teaching of reading, and the afternoon session to the teaching of writing, both subjects were handled by Mr. Cooley in an able manner. Mr. Morrill gave a very interesting talk on "The Teacher and Her Various Duties." Dinner and supper were served in the church parlor by the Ladies' Aid society. Among those present were the school directors of the town of Newbury, A. A. Olmstead, J. F. Patterson, W. N. Gillfillan, South Hyegate, Mass. Nellie Tillotson, supervisor of the town of Orange.

Fred Welch was at Wells River Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman of Topsham were in town over Sunday.

Miss Carrie Downs was at home from Montpelier seminary over Sunday.

Harry Corruith, who is working at Wells River, was at his home here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Welch spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Miller, at Lanesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orr of Peacham were in town yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Emily McCallis.

Mrs. Minnie Chalmers, who has been nursing in the family of David Whitehill, went to her home at West Topsham Monday.

Misses Katie Downs and Helen Smith were home from their schools at West Topsham to attend the teachers' meeting Friday.

F. W. Lewis, district superintendent, preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning and assisted the pastor, Rev. M. S. Eddy, in a baptismal service. Rev. E. A. Bishop of Montpelier will preach next Sunday.

The body of Mrs. Emily McCallis, who died at the insane hospital at Waterbury Saturday morning, was brought here on Monday afternoon and funeral services were held at the Baptist church, Rev. S. H. Myers officiating. Deceased was a resident of Groton nearly all her life until committed to the hospital for the insane a few years ago.

Election returns will be received at the rooms of the granite manufacturers' association in the C. W. Averill building and Barre people are invited to attend. The Republican and the Democratic city committees join in extending this courtesy to the public.

The Roach Brothers sprung another surprise at the Comique last night. The surprise was, a new drummer, who played during the evening on his drums and other effects. This is the same as is used in all the larger cities, and proved to be an immediate success here. Roach Brothers should be complimented in keeping pace with the larger cities.

Mrs. Sophia Holbrook Coombs of Jack-sonville, aged about 68 years, committed suicide Tuesday afternoon, October 27, by drowning herself in a brook. The body was found lying face downward in about fourteen inches of water. Mrs. Coombs lived with her younger daughter, Miss Hazel Coombs. Of late her mind had been somewhat affected, as she had been worrying over being in ill health, and it is thought that the act was due to insanity. She is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Mary Canedy, and one son, Martin Coombs, of Greenfield, Mass.

So They Were Married. Said the bachelor to the widow: "I'll prove my love by deeds. I'll gladly give up my cigars. If you'll give up your tribuna."
